NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

In order to evaluate a potential employment opportunity with Google (the "Purpose"), Google Inc., for itself and its subsidiaries and affiliates, and the individual identified below hereby agree:

- 1. This agreement is effective as of the date signed below.
- 2. Google may disclose to the other party (the "Recipient") information pertaining to the Purpose that Google considers confidential ("Confidential Information").
- 3. Recipient may use Confidential Information only for the Purpose. Recipient must use a reasonable degree of care to protect Confidential Information and to prevent any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information. Recipient may share Confidential Information with his / her legal counsels who are engaged by Recipient in discussions concerning the Purpose. Further, Recipient may share the fact that he / she interviewed with Google and visited Google's facilities and the terms of any written offer of employment by Google, if such offer is extended.
- 4. Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) was known to Recipient without restriction before receipt from Google; (b) is publicly available through no fault of Recipient; (c) is rightfully received by Recipient from a third party without a duty of confidentiality; or (d) is independently developed by Recipient. Recipient may disclose Confidential Information when compelled to do so by law if it provides reasonable prior notice to Google, unless a court orders that Google not be given notice.
- 5. Either party may terminate this agreement with thirty days prior written notice, but this agreement's provisions will survive as to Confidential Information that is disclosed before termination.
- 6. Unless the parties otherwise agree in writing, Recipient's duty to protect Confidential Information expires five years from disclosure.
- 7. This agreement imposes no obligation to proceed with any business transaction.
- 8. Recipient acquires no intellectual property rights under this agreement except the limited rights necessary to use the Confidential Information for the Purpose.
- 9. This agreement does not create any agency or partnership relationship. This agreement is not assignable or transferable by either party without the prior written consent of the other party.
- 10. This agreement is the parties' entire agreement on this topic, superseding any prior or contemporaneous agreements. Any amendments must be in writing. The parties may execute this agreement in counterparts, which taken together will constitute one instrument. Failure to enforce any of the provisions of this agreement will not constitute a waiver.
- 11. This agreement is governed by the laws of the State of California, excluding its conflict-of-laws principles. The exclusive venue for any dispute relating to this agreement shall be Santa Clara County, California.
